Congratulations

The Echo would like to congratulate Cherish Gregory and John Guilfoyle on becoming published authors! Cherish and John created original mini-sagas that were selected among thousands of entries to be published in Young writers Twisted Tales - Stories from the USA.

Editors looked at criteria such as: perception, imagination, creativity, expression, originality, and language use. Cherish and John's stories will be printed in a book that will also be sent to the National Library in Washington D.C. as a permanent record of their amazing accomplishment. Congrats!
